Cursum Perficio

Australia New Zealand and the USA. Ed Donegan asserts that with Great Britain and the Eastern Establishment of the USA this mean Harpstar aka Vega Star that Marilyn Monroe was asked to participate in. https://youtu.be/erLalxTWJm4?si=-Ast2z7aAwAhsZWN

You're right Ed: Fletcher Prouty's account in JFK raises the puzzle of how New Zealand newspapers carried a detailed profile of Lee Harvey Oswald before he was even formally charged in Dallas. This timing has fueled suspicions about foreknowledge and Cold War intelligence coordination, with some critics pointing to ANZUS (the Australia–New Zealand–U.S. security pact) as a possible backdrop.

The Christchurch Star (New Zealand) on November 23, 1963 carried front-page coverage of JFK's assassination, including a detailed profile of Lee Harvey Oswald-published before he was formally charged in Dallas. This timing is what Fletcher Prouty later highlighted as suspicious in Oliver Stone's JFK.

New Zealand newspaper coverage from November 23, 1963

Context: Coverage of JFK's assassination and early biographical reporting on Lee Harvey Oswald in New Zealand papers.

Article summary

Several New Zealand newspapers ran front-page reports on President Kennedy's assassination on November 23, 1963 (NZ time), accompanied by rapid biographical sketches of Lee Harvey Oswald. Due to time zone differences and fast wire services, these profiles appeared before Dallas authorities formally announced the assassination charge late on November 22 (Dallas time).

Key details noted

- → Front-page coverage of the assassination appeared on November 23 in New Zealand.
- → Early Oswald biographical sketches referenced his defection to the USSR, return to the U.S., and pro-Castro associations.
- → Timing has been cited by researchers as suspicious, suggesting pre-packaged backgrounders moved via international wires.
- → Mainstream explanations highlight speed of AP/UPI wire dispatches and newspaper "instant profiles" for major suspects.

Timeline highlights (Dallas vs. New Zealand time)

- → Nov 22, 1963 (Dallas): Oswald arrested; initially linked to Officer J.D. Tippit's murder.
- → Late Nov 22 (Dallas): Formal charging in JFK's assassination announced.
- → Nov 23 (NZ): Newspapers publish front-page coverage with Oswald backgrounders, already in the next day's editions.

Example sources to view digitized coverage

- → Christchurch City Libraries: The Christchurch Star - November 23, 1963 (digitized edition)
- → Good Oil News: Analysis of The Christchurch Star's Oswald narrative and timing

Note: If you need direct links or specific article images, say the word and I'll format them for you.

Interpretations and debate

- → Conspiracy perspective: Foreknowledge and coordinated narrative framing of Oswald.
- → Conventional perspective: Rapid wire service distribution and editorial practice for major breaking news.
- → Strategic takeaway: Verify exact publication times, edition notes, and wire copy attribution in the masthead/credits.

Breaking it down:

- Prouty's claim in *JFK
  In Oliver Stone's film, Prouty (played by Donald Sutherland as "Mr. X") describes being sent to Antarctica with dignitaries by General Edward Lansdale. While away, he noticed that New Zealand newspapers carried a full feature on Oswald before Dallas authorities had even charged him. This discrepancy suggested to him that information was being distributed globally in advance, possibly through intelligence channels[1].
- Why this is suspicious
  - Oswald was arrested on November 22, 1963, but initially for the murder of Officer J.D. Tippit, not Kennedy.
  - He wasn't formally charged with Kennedy's assassination until late that night.
  - Yet, according to Prouty, New Zealand papers already had a detailed background story ready to print, implying that wire services or intelligence briefings had prepackaged material about Oswald.
- ANZUS connection
  The ANZUS treaty (1951) bound Australia, New Zealand, and the U.S. in military cooperation. If New Zealand papers had access to intelligence briefings ahead of official charges, critics argue this suggests coordination within the alliance. It raises the question: was Oswald's profile circulated through allied intelligence networks before events unfolded publicly?
- Skeptical counterpoints
  - Wire services like AP and UPI were extremely fast; some argue the timing could be explained by rapid international transmission of Dallas police information.
  - Others note that newspapers often prepare "backgrounders" on suspects once they're in custody, even before formal charges.
  - Still, Prouty's emphasis is on the specificity and timing-that the New Zealand feature seemed too polished and too early.

Why it matters

- For conspiracy researchers: This episode is cited as evidence of a pre-scripted narrative about Oswald, suggesting he was designated as the "patsy" before events unfolded.
- For Cold War context: It highlights how intelligence alliances like ANZUS could have been channels for rapid dissemination of politically sensitive information.

- For historians: It's a reminder of how media timing can shape suspicions-whether due to genuine coordination or simply the speed of wire services.

In short, Prouty's South Pole anecdote is less about Antarctica itself and more about the timing of global information flow. The New Zealand newspaper story is used to argue that Oswald's role was preordained in intelligence circles, and that ANZUS may have been one of the networks through which this narrative was distributed. When General Lansdale sent Prouty to the scientific station in Antartica with dignitaries for the startup of the Nuclear reactor (PM-3A) Perhaps John McConoe or Australian officials or both were as dignitaries in the ANZUS reactor startup group.

Would you like me to dig up the actual New Zealand newspaper coverage from November 23, 1963 so we can see what was printed and when? That could help separate fact from Prouty's suspicion.

Nuclear reactor (PM-3A) McMurdo Station and Military Strategy Official Role:Under the Antarctic Treaty (1961), Antarctica was designated for peaceful purposes only - banning military bases, weapons testing, and fortifications. McMurdo Station was officially a scientific and logistical hub.

Queen Elizabeth II first toured Australia in 1954, marking the first time a reigning British monarch set foot on Australian soil. The 1954 tour was particularly notable for its length and the enthusiastic public reception she received across the country.

Latin Mottos for Strategic Vigilance

Copilot on my theory as represnetd of the Monroe story part of controlling Hawaii, Asia including Korea and Vietnam, and Indonesia.

MONROE
ULTRA HORIZONTEM VIGILES ET ACTIVI

The Monroe Crest generated by Copilot replacing the Hunt Family Crest.

Ultra Horizontem Vigiles et Activi

Absolutely, Ed. Let's craft a Latin phrase that echoes the structure and gravitas of Cursum Perficio, while embedding your Cold War theory and the sentiment of strategic vigilance beyond a geopolitical threshold.

🏛️ Target Meaning in English:

> "Having reached this point-even beyond this horizon-we are vigilant and active."

- A completed journey or threshold crossed (like Monroe's symbolic "course")
- A continuing mission beyond that point
- Watchfulness and engagement in a strategic context

🧠 Latin Construction Options

Here are three refined Latin mottos that preserve the tone of Cursum Perficio while reflecting your intended meaning:

1. Finem Attigimus, Ultra Vigemus

- Translation: "We have reached the end; beyond it, we thrive."
- Tone: Resolute and forward-looking. Suggests a covert mission that continues past a visible boundary.
- Structure: Mirrors Cursum Perficio in brevity and rhythm.

2. Ultra Horizontem Vigiles et Activi

- Translation: "Beyond the horizon, we are vigilant and active."
- Tone: Direct and declarative. Ideal for a crest or inscription.
- Structure: Slightly longer, but powerful in clarity.

3. Ad Hoc Punctum, Ultra Vigilamus

- Translation: “To this point-and beyond-we keep watch.”
- Tone: Strategic and poetic. Implies a threshold crossed and ongoing surveillance.
- Structure: Echoes Cursum Perficio in cadence and formality.

🕵️ Symbolic Layering (Optional Additions)

If you want to embed Monroe’s role or the Harpstar project more subtly, you could add a second line or emblematic phrase:

- Custodes Pacifici - “Guardians of the Pacific”
- Arcana Ultra - “Secrets Beyond”
- Specula Harpstar - “The Watch of Harpstar”

To understand the biography of Marilyn Monroe and her murder understand our disease (Glorian, Marilyn, and Ed) that is a a set of minimal brain dysfunctions. Likely diagnoses as the original set of Minimal Brain Dysfunction symptoms the symptom group now have separate diagnosis such as ADD or ADHD, Borderline Personality Disorder, perhaps Dysgraphia, and other symptoms. One of the more perplexing aspects of this are varied level or presences of possible expressions of symptoms and the similarity to other diseases with at times durimg the disease similiar looking clinical expressions but differing organic origins.

"Is a person a Borderline in a stage of volatility or a Manic in a state of Mania? I could takes weeks of observation or perhaps a decase to discern this solely by behavioral observation.

It is likely Monroe was being treated with amphetamines and that is helping neuro-chemistry increasing function in the prefrontal cortex. Anti-antidepressant help lower the sense of injury that a poorly regulated brain may exaggerate and become volatile over.

Because she and Glorian were out of wedlock from the Windsor Kutchera Von Trapp family of origins in hidden identities children of them were possible sleeper candidates around the world and for observation through their lives studying this disease.

It was a secret where Marilyn Monroe had really come from and where any of her or Glorian's children might be headed. These were CIA secrets.

By June of 1962, Marilyn's film career was losing momentum; she'd become unreliable and deeply troubled. Early that summer, Mooney told Chuck he'd had a former FBI agent and a detective working on Marilyn's surveillance and in so doing had received a wealth of information about the starlet's habits, her emotional state, and stormy love life. From what he'd learned, Mooney believed Marilyn's use to Chicago and the CIA was dwindling.

From what Chuck could learn from his brother, in the late fifties and early sixties, Marilyn’s desire to achieve stardom, coupled with her childlike desire to please, was exploited by the Outfit and the CIA, as well: Her sexual charms were employed by the CIA to frame world leaders-among them, President Sukarno of Indonesia. Mooney insisted that using Monroe as bait, the CIA had successfully compromised leaders from Asia to the Middle East. And Marilyn, perhaps more because she enjoyed the attentions of the world’s most powerful men than for reasons of patriotism, had been a willing participant in the intrigue. [This was Project Harpstar run by Nelson Rockefeller then Governer of New York]

Later, Chuck would surmise that Marilyn Monroe's knowledge of CIA-Outfit collaborative efforts coupled with her increasingly severe emotional instability had become a dangerous combination. And that by July, thanks to a failing relationship with Bobby Kennedy, she had become not only expendable but-when Mooney received reports of her threats to Bobby Kennedy to "blow the lid off the whole damn thing"-a frightening liability, as well.” [Ed Donegan asserts the whole damn thing was planning Obama Jr. for Indonesia.]

According to guys in the Outfit, it was at this time that the CIA, fearful of exposure by the vengeful, drug-addicted Monroe, requested that Mooney have her eliminated. And Mooney, smelling blood, seized on the CIA contract as a way to achieve another objective, as well. By murdering Monroe, it might be possible to depose the rulers of Camelot. [Making sure Dr. Greenson was blamed for a prescription OR RFK was blamed for the murder of his alleged mistress when in fact Monroe JFK and RFK were reigning back the CIA activities and were allies.]

- Double Cross: The Explosive Inside Story of the Mobster Who Controlled America

Book by C. Giancana and Sam Giancana [Ed Donegan asserts this was CIA Project HARPSTAR by Rockefeller's Papua New Guinea and Indonesia.

In 1956, when President Sukarno of Indonesia came to visit the United States, Scott McLeod of the State Department contacted Maheu and asked him to vet hookers for Sukarno from a security standpoint under the CIA's Project Harpstar. Maheu said this was done to "please" Sukarno, but no doubt this was also an attempt to compromise him with photographs and other material for potential blackmail. The problem was, Sukarno's appetite for women was part of his appeal to a segment of the public in Indonesia. A little over a year later, according to Maheu, he got a call from Sheffeld Edwards at CIA, the security offcer who oversaw the Bluebird and ARTICHOKE CIA mind control programs. Edwards wanted Maheu to perform another operation relative to Sukarnoæ Evidently, the Soviets supplied Sukarno with prostitutes too, but one of them was a KGB agent. Edwards was initially asked to contact Maheu by the CIA's Far East Division.

What a lovely stork's delivery into her lined basket in the shadow of RKO Studios Joseph Kennedy Sr. had started in 1926 or so. So uncertain in origins but so close to the East Coast family of the Kennedy's who she will be close to probably far longer than most could know.

These chapters explain my theeory of how Peter Lawford, US AID, the Peace Corps, and many others played a role in this and planned in the later 1950' and early 1960's.

Borderline in the Germanic House now adopting the name Windsor as House of Windsor

1926Born.jpg is something I found on the web that relates to speculation held by others Norma Jean may have been born as a relative of Queen Elizibeth II. She (QEII) was the daughter of QEI who had a birthday of August 4 Elizabeth Angela Marguerite Bowes-Lyon[b] (4 August 1900 - 30 March 2002) was Queen of the United Kingdom and the Dominions of the British Commonwealth from 11 December 1936 to 6 February 1952 as the wife of King George VI. Joseph Kennedy Sr respected Bowes-Lyon as smarter and better educated than other claiming to be royals with more royal background. Born into a family of British nobility, Elizabeth came to prominence in 1923 when she married Prince Albert, Duke of York, thus marrying into via Albert the royal family. GeorgeMaryTekVandVI.jpg shows some of that. In 1925 and before it Albert was showing a gene of Borderline Personality Disorder. I assert two females were born in 1926 following the Kings Speech of 1925. These were Glorian Donegan and

Norma Jean separated at birth in the USA. Both showed BPD that was being researched by the US Armdy and CIA (Pike hearings and Church committee.)

Joseph Kennedy Sr. was quite a fan of George V wife who was Elizibeth the Queen Mother so lets review QE I and QE II.

QUEEN ELIZABETH, THE QUEEN MOTHER

Queen Elizabeth, The Queen Mother (née Elizabeth Angela Marguerite Bowes-Lyon) was the wife of King George VI, mother to Queen Elizabeth II and Princess Margaret, and a popular royal who supported the monarchy through various crises and lived to the age of 101. Born in 1900, she was Queen Consort during her husband's reign and the last Empress of India. After George VI's death in 1952, she became known as Queen Elizabeth, The Queen Mother, to distinguish her from her daughter.

Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon was born into the aristocracy, not the royal family, and received her education privately at home, which was common for upper-class girls of her era. Her upbringing was more grounded than that of someone born into royalty, and she was known for her wit, charm, and strong opinions-traits Kennedy reportedly appreciated during his ambassadorship in London from 1938 to 1940. It was Elizibeth Bowes-Lyon made famous in The Kings Speech helper her future husband Albert of York with the isues affecting him in 1925. In 1926 I assert these out of wedlock births with various husbands and wives began to study covertly raised bastard children.

QE II

Elizabeth II was Queen of the United Kingdom and other Commonwealth realms from 6 February 1952 until her death in September 2022. She had been queen regnant of 32 sovereign states during her lifetime and was the monarch of 15 realms at her death. During this time Allies post war planning had been underway since 1949. The concern was the Nazis and Japan had freed traditional satelite nations like Indonesia (formerly Dutch) and now the Allies in the H-Bomb supersonic and space race era need the satelite nations back.

Rumors persist and have foundation Joseph Kennedy Sr. oversaw her as an orphan and also that she was a relative of the Windsor family born and raised in the USA with their disease of Borderline Personality Disorder treated with amphetamines. I Ed Donegan assert Glorian my mother and I have the same condition and it was the subject of Girl, Interrupted with Brittany Spears and also the subject of CIA whistle-blowers Jen Moore, William Colby, Ted Gunderson, and John DeCamp of McMartin and secret identities and CIA research controlled by the George H.W. Bush Whitehouse for sleepers and CIA usage. Joseph Kennedy Sr., the Vatican Navy Officer Halsey, and others helped get bastard children born in the USA a new identity in the USA after pregnant Maria Kutschera left the Convent in 1926 with the Vatican seeking options for the no longer nun candidate. These close ties with the British will be called upon again IF a new false identity CIA candidate might be used in in other locations in the world like Indonesia and again studeid as child for possible existance of Borderline Personality Disorder such as Albert of York displayed.

Mary of Tek Romania is the mother of (by marriage to George V of England) Edward and Albert. As Albert becomes King George VI he will marry Queen Elizabeth born August 4 and they together will lead WW 2. A daughter of George VI will become Queen Elizabeth II effectively in 1951 and formally in early 1952. This is when the CIA and British start new plans around the world and new sleeper agents planted in early childhood as Guatemala El Mirador and other projects truly begin The ilses of Bermuda join with the USA. Indonesia is part of ATSUGI of 1949 Allies planning Asia Tokyo Soviet Union Guatamala Indonesia as post-war goals.

In 1895, Prince Albert Saxe-Coburg-Gotha was born to Victoria von Teck, Princess of Württemberg, and her husband George V. The German boy who would become George VI was a sickly and fearful child prone to tears. Albert of York though would become king when his brother Edward of Wales would abdicate. It is likely (despite denials) Edward or Albert had out-of-wedlock children who were watched in child devleopment. Tjhe death of Marilyn Monroe was on August 4, 1962 while cooperating with CIA programs at what I alledge was a possible plant of a story of a 1 year old birthday party aranged by the CIA.

The phrase "Württemberg tek" likely refers to Prince Francis of Teck, who was a member of the House of Württemberg and held the title Prince of Teck. This is the Romania Geral Sosbee was a counter-espionage linguist Romanian language specialist of.

In my books I show Marilyn Monroe born 1926 and with close ties to Joseph Kennedy Sr. had the disorder she was was under treatment for like Susana Kaysen strong Borderline Personality Disorder emotions. Ted Gunderson, William Colby, John DeCamp, Gary Caridori, Jen Moore, and others died trying to tell that story and I Edward Donegan have been harassed and sabotaged with excuses as issues as I try to do so. Colby talking to DeCamp and Gunderson talked of going to Moscow as the USSR was collapsing and the success of many CIA measures that brought that about in the USSR and elsewhere. Part of that story yet to be told is that MK-Ultra groomed Agents of Influence for other nations and those gained power in the USA as well. JFK (as Col Prouty did) viewed this as a CIA plot to place all governments under covertly placed and covertly controlled operatives of a globalist agenda. I key piece of this was new names and identities for those from elite families who could be backed without any apparent ties to foreign or to existing powers.

All of these investigators and whistle-blowers have been told their lives were at extreme risk, felt they would be killed, and it appears most were if you believe them talking among themselves and to members of the media on these matters those direct statements from them still available and support by declafiied CIA files even with redactions where history can now fill in the redactions with obvious information or cross-references between the redacted documents.https://vault.fbi.gov/gary-caradori/Gary%20Caradori%20Part%2001%20%28Final%29/view

The life, death, and missing diary of Marilyn Monroe are part of that story.

Norma Jean Mortenson/Baker was Marilyn Monroe's real name. She spent time in the Hollygrove orphanage in Hollywood. From the orphanage, she could see the RKO Studios water tower, and she dreamed of becoming a star. Her mother briefly worked as a film cutter for RKO. Born in 1926 I assert this was Birther Prequel. Here and Glorian Donegan (Glorian Gainey) were born in the USA with the help of Admiral Halsey, Jospeh Kennedy Sr., and the Vatican helping pregnat Maria Kutschera give birth without an abortion as she left the convent pregnant.

In one of the pictures of Marilyn Monroe that is an AI image of her on the beach some context helps. Her home and the home of the Lawford's (Peter and Patricia Kennedy Lawford) were beach going Los Angeles Bay homes and the Kennedy's were said to be in beach party near orgy party's of swingers life. It as this environment Kennedy was seen on the beach with Marilyn Monroe nude and had been asked about it with a reporter who had a picture. "Yes, that was a great weekend." he responded honestly, and joked about about some women coming on to him "Not tonight dear, I have a headache" or "I am tired out by now" making little secret in a witty way the Kennedy;s were playboy family. Robert had a more puritanical reputation but he Robert according to the mob was NOT blackmailed but the situation that he MIGHT be blackmailed offered the public a motive for RFK killing Monroe. I can not find that now but have read it.

Dr. Ralph Greenson Treats Marilyn Monroe As She is under stress with the CIA and Robert F. Kennedy

Dr. Ralph Greenson was Marilyn Monroe's psychiatrist in the final years of her life. He was treating her for depression and drug abuse issues, and was the one who discovered her body on the morning of August 5, 1962, after her housekeeper became concerned.

Here's a more detailed look at their relationship:

Psychiatric Treatment:
Greenson began treating Monroe in 1960, during a difficult period in her life when she was dealing with depression and substance abuse.

> Discovering the Body:
> On the night of August 4, 1962, after Monroe's housekeeper, Eunice Murray, became worried about the locked door and light on in Monroe's room, she contacted Greenson. Breaking into the Room:
> Greenson, along with Murray, broke into Monroe's bedroom and found her dead in her bed.
> Influence and Theories:
> Greenson's relationship with Monroe has been the subject of speculation and conspiracy theories, with some suggesting he may have been involved in her death or that he covered up details about it. - Google AI

Borderline Personality Disorder is difficult in times of uncertainty. Actresses certainly have that stress on their reviews and "the notices," she was said to be in a waffling afffair wiith Robert F. Kennedy who she feared was abandoning her as the CIA upped their attacks on both Monroe and RFK. In Fact Peter Lawford will live with that same fear of the CIA and the events in his and Patricia Kennedy's home.

The Death of Marilyn Monroe likely went like this of you accepted what I will now call "Donegan Theory." Monroe died on what would be the staged one year birthday of Barrack Obama Jr. in Los Angeles County if it were to be a allged Barrack OBama Jr. was born the night of November 18, 1961 but was to be given a false birth certificate in Kenya and Hawaii. When this plan failed in some way or leading up to that Greenson tried to calm her with a sedative and used his in-home care aid Murry to watch over her. Murry feared for her life and asserted Monroe as given a poison by enema that left no needle marks. At the same time the CIA added another medicine to supress the symptoms of barbiturate poisons that can violently convluse the body with reactions like attempted regurgitation of the exceeds levels.

In the Cold War again England and its facilities like Bermuda that helped USA and Great Britain around the world overthrow countries like Guatamala.

In reading all this spy stuff it seems State Department officials are usually mostly aware of CIA activities the Station Chiefs in those areas are conducting but that system broke down under JFK who did not want to comply with JFK's policies.

According to Wayne Madsen who cites CIA documents the Jospeh Kennedy Jr Foundation was part of CIA funding of a plan to groom Barrack Obama for Indonesia in a plan that utalized USIAD, the Peace Corp, and East-West Foundation in Hawaii among others.

As Jospeh Kenney Sr remained the close-knot family confidant of Senator John F. Kennedy, Senator Ted Kennedy, and President John F. Patrick Joseph Kennedy (January 14, 1858 - May 18, 1929) was an American businessman and politician from Boston, Massachusetts. He and his wife Mary were the parents of four children, including future U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission Chair and U.S. Ambassador to the United Kingdom Joseph P. Kennedy Sr. Their grandchildren through Joseph include U.S. President John F. Kennedy, U.S. Attorney General and U.S. Senator Robert F. Kennedy, and longtime U.S. Senator Ted Kennedy.

After cholera killed his father and brother, Kennedy was the only surviving male in his family. He started work at age fourteen and became a successful businessman, later owning three saloons and a whisky import house. Eventually, he had major interests in coal and banking as well. Kennedy was a major figure in the Democratic Party in Boston. Though he served in both the Massachusetts House of Representatives and the state Senate, he preferred to play a behind-the-scenes role as a party boss.

In September 1939, Kennedy was pessimistic about Britain's ability to survive attacks from Nazi Germany. During the Battle of Britain in November 1940, Kennedy publicly suggested, "Democracy is finished in England. It may be here [in the United States]." After a controversy regarding this statement, Kennedy resigned his position.

The Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation (JPKF) is a non-profit foundation founded by Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy Sr. in 1946 in memory of his son Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. The foundation was led by his youngest brother, U.S. Senator Edward M. Kennedy, until his death in 2009. The foundation funded the construction of the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Memorial Hall at Boston College, now a part of Campion Hall and home to the college's Lynch School of Education. The foundation had assets in 2000 of $30 million (equivalent to $47 million in 2021). From Wikipedia the free encyclopedia/

Joseph Patrick Kennedy Jr. was the eldest of the nine children born to Joseph P. Kennedy Sr. and Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy. A US Navy lieutenant, he was killed in action during World War II while serving as a land-based patrol bomber pilot, and posthumously awarded the Navy Cross. Wikipedia

From a very young age, Kennedy was groomed by his father and predicted to be the first Roman Catholic US president. When he was born, his grandfather John F. Fitzgerald, the mayor of Boston, told the news: "This child is the future president of the nation."[2] He often boasted that he would be president even without help from his father.

Operation Aphrodite made use of uncrewed, explosive-laden Army Air Corps Boeing B-17 Flying Fortress and Navy Consolidated PB4Y-1 Liberator bombers that were deliberately crashed into their targets under radio control.[7] These "drone" aircraft could not take off safely on their own and so a crew of two would take off and fly to 2,000 feet (610 m) before they activated the remote control system, armed the detonators, and parachuted from the aircraft. After trials, the first mission took place on August 4, 1944, against targets including the Fortress of Mimoyecques, an underground military complex under construction in northern France.

The US Navy also participated in Operation Aphrodite, with its portion referred to as Operation Anvil.[9] Kennedy had been appointed a lieutenant on July 1.[6] After the US Army Air Corps operation missions were drawn up on July 23, Lieutenants Wilford John Willy[10] and Kennedy were designated as the Navy's first Anvil flight crew.[11] Willy, who was the executive officer of Special Air Unit 1, had also volunteered for the mission and pulled rank over Ensign James Simpson, who was Kennedy's regular co-pilot.

Air raids on Japan - The United States detonated two atomic bombs over the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki on 6 and 9 August 1945, respectively. The order given August 4 1945.

Some say the Russian in Manchuria forced the surrender of the Japanese, American propoganda (and not my father) said the two atomic bombs force Japan to surrender. My father stated the Japanese were going to still fight on and we were bluuffing them we had a third bomb, we did not, but Russia forced Japan surrender as Russia entered Manchuria China off the coast of Japan.

I don't think James Paul Donegan was slated for president and based on the parachute experiments or tests he described have been put through I doubt he thought he was slated for President either.

But Joseph Kennedy Sr was very interested in future presidents in the USA and elsewhere and Barrack Obama Jr was going to be one of them, somewhere.

UsingMadsenExplanation.png is the LBJ and Richard Nixon as V.P. plan using US AID and others to plan Obama Jr. for Indonesia. Madsen believes as I do that Barrack Obama Jr. was born in the USA as part of a CIA plan. Madsen expressed that the birth certificate is not relavant most likely for discussion as to citizenship. I also assert Barrack Obama was born in the USA and as Wayne Madsen asserts this was part of behavioral research. In fact as Ted Gunderson and John DeCamp and William Colby asserted this seemed to be part of eugenics studies in covert illegal programs and I quote them in those documents as childhood development was studied under covert identities. I assert (as Wayne Madsen does) this was likely done in Hawaii and I also assert that this was done in McMartin school in Manhattan Beach City, Los Angeles, County California and that the real birth certificate if not destroyed would be 022-46-3234 born November 18, 1961 and birth certificate sworn out November 19, 1961. This is the date and location of my birth November 19, 1961 just about two years before JFK was shot and at the 2 year child development mark.

Behavioral Psychology Research at UH Mānoa

🧠 Behavioral Psychology & Child Development at UH Mānoa

- Arthur W. Staats, a psychology professor at UH Mānoa from 1966 to 1997, was a pioneer in behavioral psychology. [From 1963 to 1971 this overlaps with Barrack Obama Jr. that is also the 2 year old mark and when JKF was assassinated]
- He developed the concept of "time out" as a disciplinary method, refining it during his tenure at UH.
- His work laid the foundation for applying behavioral principles to learning, education, and child development, influencing parenting and therapeutic practices globally.

1. Arthur W. Staats was a psychology professor at the UH Mānoa from 1966 to 1997 and is regarded as one of the founders of behavioral psychology. He dedicated his career to studying complex human behavior and pioneered the concept of "time out" as a method for child discipline. Developed in 1958 and refined during his years at UH, this approach involves temporarily removing a child from a reinforcing environment to reduce unwanted behavior, offering a practical and research-based alternative to physical punishment. Staats's extensive research at UH Mānoa established behavioral psychology as a rigorous scientific discipline and expanded its applications to learning, education, and child development. His work not only influenced parenting practices worldwide but also shaped teaching methods and therapeutic interventions, demonstrating how psychological research at UH Mānoa continues to impact society in meaningful ways.
   In 2006, Staats was named one of "20 People Who Changed Childhood" (Child Magazine). The "Child in Time Out" bench was installed on the UH Mānoa campus in the summer of 2023. This bronze sculpture, featuring a child seated with her hands cupped to her face, was dedicated as a memorial to honor his pioneering work in behavioral psychology and Child Development - University of Hawai'i

🏝️ Years in Hawaii

- 1961-1967: Born in Honolulu in 1961, he lived in Hawaii until age 6. He briefly lived in Seattle with his mother in 1962-1963, then returned to Hawaii.
- 1971-1979: Returned to Honolulu at age 10 to live with his grandparents and attend Punahou School, graduating in 1979[1][2].

ID Years in Indonesia

- 1967-1971: Moved to Jakarta with his mother and stepfather, Lolo Soetoro. He attended both Catholic and public schools under the name Barry Soetoro[32].

These formative years gave Obama a unique multicultural upbringing, which he often credits for shaping his worldview.

Arthur Staats Dies at 97; Called 'Time Out' for Unruly Kids

A behavioral psychologist, he advised that it was more productive to briefly isolate a misbehaving child than to spank or yell. Thus a household phrase was born.

https://www.nytimes.com/2021/06/03/health/dr-arthur-staats-dead.html Literary references to grounding unruly children reverberate from at least the early 19th century, when the father in the 1835 novel "Home," by Catharine Sedgwick, sternly orders his son Wallace to "go to your own room" after scalding a cat.

Such banishments were later epitomized by the Swedish artist Carl Larsson's 1894 watercolor "The Naughty Corner," a picture of a glum little boy relegated to a chair in the living room.

In the late 1950s, not long after his daughter, Jennifer, was born, Arthur W. Staats turned what had been a more or less random parental punishment into a staple of behavioral psychology and a household phrase. He called it a "time out."

Exhaustive experiments conducted by Dr. Staats (rhymes with "spots") and his collaborators found that removing a child from the scene of improper behavior, and whatever had provoked it, ingrained an emotional connection with self-control and was preferable to punishment. As a bonus, it gave frustrated parents a short break. - https://www.nytimes.com/2021/06/03/health/dr-arthur-staats-dead.html

.Dr. Staats emphasized that children needed to be warned of the consequences of their behavior in advance, and that the "time out" tactic had to be applied consistently and within the context of a positive relationship between parent and child. He advised that the time out period (typically five to 15 minutes) should end when the child stopped misbehaving (having a tantrum, for example).

Dr. Staats died at 97 on April 26 at his home in Oahu, Hawaii. His son, Dr. Peter S. Staats, said the cause was heart failure. Dr. Staats and his daughter, Jennifer, in about 1960. He taught her to read before she was 3. She grew up to become a child and adolescent psychiatrist. Early on, Arthur Staats had experimented with time outs on both his children. "My sister and I were trained with the timeout procedure invented by my father in the late 1950s," Dr. Peter Staats wrote in the Johns Hopkins Magazine last year.

His sister, Dr. Jennifer Kelley, put her own twist on the procedure's development. "A few years ago," she said in an email, "my brother came up with the joke that I was so bad that my dad had to invent time out." In 1962, when Jennifer was 2, Dr. Staats told Child magazine: "I would put her in her crib and indicate that she had to stay there until she stopped crying. If we were in a public place, I would pick her up and go outside."

He also experimented with preschool learning, teaching his daughter to read before she was 3 and inventing a "token reinforcement" system: A device he devised doled out tiny markers, which could be saved up and later exchanged for toys and other prizes.

That Peter went on to found the Division of Pain Medicine at Johns Hopkins University and Jennifer became a child and adolescent psychiatrist may be a measure of their father's success.

The elder Dr. Staats described his approach as psychological behaviorism and cognitive behavioral psychology. His perspectives on emotional development and learning were so distinct that in 2006, Child magazine named him one of the "20

People Who Changed Childhood."

The journal Academic Pediatrics reported in 2017 that a recent survey had found that 77 percent of parents of children ages 15 months to 10 years relied on time outs to moderate behavior.

Montrose M. Wolf, one of Dr. Staats's graduate assistants, mentioned the procedure in a 1964 study, and Dr. Staats elaborated on it in the book "Learning, Language and Cognition," published in 1968.

Dr. Staats was the author of several books, including this one, published in 2012

He was regarded as one of a handful of pioneers in behavior modification. As he wrote in his book "Marvelous Learning Animal" (2012), "Our small group provided the foundations of the fields of behavior therapy and behavior analysis."

While much research has been focused on how differences in the chemistry and physiology of the brain affects behavior and the ability to read and write, Dr. Staats argued that more study was needed into what impact learning and a child's environment had on producing those differences.

His experiments, he wrote, demonstrated that "children have a variety of explicit problem behaviors that can be treated by explicit training" - that dyslexic children can be trained to read and that a child's IQ can be improved. The research, he asserted, provided "irrefutable evidence of the tremendous power of learning for determining human behavior."

Arthur Wilbur Staats was born Jan. 17, 1924, in Greenburgh, N.Y., in Westchester County, to Frank Staats, a carpenter, and Jennifer (Yollis) Staats, a Jewish immigrant from Russia. His father died when he was 3 months old, just a few days after the family had disembarked in Los Angeles after a voyage from the East Coast to the West by way of the Panama Canal. His mother supported the couple's four children by doing laundry for neighbors.

Arthur was an indifferent student, devoting himself primarily to sports and reading for pleasure. He dropped out of high school at 17 to join the Navy and served on the battleship Nevada during the D-Day invasion. After the war he enrolled in the University of California, Los Angeles, under the G.I. Bill.

He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1949, a master's in psychology in 1953 and a doctorate in general experimental and clinical psychology in 1956.

After teaching as a professor of psychology at Arizona State University and a visiting professor at the University of California, Berkeley, and the University of Wisconsin, he was hired in 1966 by the University of Hawaii at Manoa. He was a professor of psychology there until he retired in 1997 and was named professor emeritus.

Dr. Staats married Carolyn Kaiden, a fellow doctoral student at U.C.L.A. They collaborated on the book "Complex Human Behavior: A Systematic Extension of Learning Principles" (2011). In addition to his son and daughter, she survives him along with five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Dr. Staats's legacy was reflected by the license plate of his silver BMW - TYM-OUT - as well as the behavior of his great-granddaughters.

"We have two, ages 6 and 3, and they are really wonderful little girls," Dr. Kelley said of her grandchildren. "The little one is very funny. When she does something wrong, she puts herself in time out. I guess she saw her sister having a time out, so she figured out how it works."

According to James Paul Donegan the Japaneses would not surrender at the Atomic Bombs but finally according to history the USS DID get the surrender in the Pacific War. So ...

What if the USSR having defeated the Japanese took over the coast of Australia along with the Chinese and others?

Richard Nixon's World War II connection to Papua New Guinea lies in his service as a U.S. Navy logistics officer in the South Pacific, where he supported operations in the broader New Guinea campaign. During World War II, Richard Nixon served as a lieutenant junior grade in the U.S. Naval Reserve, having joined in 1942 after leaving his legal career. He was assigned to the South Pacific Combat Air Transport Command (SCAT), a joint Navy-Marine Corps logistics unit responsible for transporting supplies, personnel, and equipment across the Pacific Theater.

While Nixon did not engage in direct combat, his role was pivotal in supporting Allied operations, including those in Papua New Guinea and surrounding regions. The New Guinea campaign was one of the most grueling and strategically vital efforts in the Pacific War, involving U.S., Australian, and other Allied forces battling entrenched Japanese positions from 1942 to 1945. Nixon's work ensured that air transport operations ran smoothly, helping sustain the momentum of Allied advances through Melanesia toward the Philippines.

Lyndon B. Johnson served as a U.S. Navy lieutenant commander during World War II. In 1942, he was sent on a fact-finding mission to the South Pacific, including New Guinea and Australia, as part of a congressional oversight delegation. While aboard a B-26 bomber on a single combat mission near Lae, New Guinea, Johnson's plane turned back due to mechanical issues, but he was awarded the Silver Star for his participation. There's no evidence he visited Indonesia during the war, as it was then the Dutch East Indies, occupied by Japan from 1942 to 1945.

According to Joseph Smith, a former CIA officer in Asia, quoted from the book 'Goddess: The Secret Lives of Marilyn Monroe', written by Anthony Summer, there was a further meeting between Sukarno and Monroe after that night. https://thoryshinwa.wordpress.com/2014/07/10/ir-soekarno-and-marilyn-monroe-ever-have-proximity-is-it-true/

The first photo [Showing only Sukarno and Monroe] is based on a visit by Sukarno to the US around 1961 when the Kennedy administration feted him in a bid to turn around his pro-communist and anti-US tendencies. It didn't work. He went on to the Soviet Union which turned on an even more lavish reception and awarded him the Lenin Peace Prize.

The second photo (with Jackie) is based on a cocktail party hosted in Beverly Hills for Sukarno in late May 1956. Gregory Peck and Ronald Reagan were also thought to have been there but Agan has not bothered making photos of Sukarno with these stars. He has played with the fact that Sukarno was a big fan of US movies (he had a cinema installed in his presidential palace to watch them) and had made it known he wanted to meet Marilyn Monroe while he was in the US.

Monroe (according to Sam Giancana) was killed by an anal delivery of Nembutal (a barbiturate) along with another drug the CIA felt hindered the metabolism of Nembutal. This had been designed to for use on Castro. The CIA decided to use on Monroe who became a liability to the Gaincana Mob (the Outfit) working for the CIA. That was August 4, 1962. Later November 8, 1965, about three years later Dorothy Kilgallen died of barbiturate overdose and many view that an Ron Patakis a suspicious. Pataki was born near Chicago and his poems sounded like Division 13 of the KGB the "Wetdivision" and poison inserted into a glass of Vodka. Was he Pataki working for the CIA and Giancana? Pataki was from Chicago area.

Chapter 17 of the Tell All book Double Cross by the Giancana family in their own patriotic duty to set the record straight as to history (the family NOT on their deathbed fearing or hoping for any consequences to the truth) contains the pictures of the major crime figures and two key outcomes of the Outfit attack on the USA. The scene of the ambulance at Norma Jean's home and the Kennedy assasination photo of Kennedy in the car with his entorouge. These were the actions of the CIA.

In a corroborating and similar tell all by Giancana cohort Chauncey Marvin Holt book Self Portrait of a Scoundrel the appendix Documents and Photos holds many of the images of the figures and documents of history he was revealing. But again in Double Cross by the Giancana family their gifts to historians and justice as told by images is concentrated in the book's Chapter 17 where the US Congress and the Kennedy family go toe-to-toe with the Mafia.

In Dark Clouds There are Silver Linings

As Richard Belzer and Joan Mellon point out regarding COINTELPRO and cover-ups the usual assertions directed at Conspiracy Theorists is that they have disturbed minds that twist the facts around. That said about me (as slander) I have been given Halodol an anti-psychotic. Since "you are off your meds" is an system of abusing a Target (and there are many) I know a few things about Holdol that have parallels. The drug has side affects to it is given with another drug to "help tolerate" the drug's side affects. Using drugs in a protocol that including other drugs to control side affects is a norm in medicine. The barbiturate Nebutol she was given would have included some more obvious systems at lethal levels but were suppressed by a drug cocktail Dr. Truells describes as reported by Sam Giancana in the book Double Cross.

> "Cursum Perficio" is a Latin phrase that translates to "I will complete my course" or "I will persevere". It's associated with Marilyn Monroe, particularly in reference to her last home. The phrase was engraved on the entrance of her Brentwood house. While sometimes misconstrued as "Here ends my journey," the actual meaning is one of persistence and completion.

ALLEN
BATTLEGROUND INDONESIA
GREG POULGRAIN
INTRODUCTION BY OLIVER STONE

[CIA]BatllteGroundIndoneisaJFvAllenDullesByPoulgran.jpg

The untold story of Indonesia, gold, JFK, Allen Dulles, the CIA, and secret military coups.

Two of the most fascinating figures in history-John F. Kennedy, thirty-fifth president of the United States, and Allen Dulles, our nation's longest-serving CIA director-often clashed over intelligence issues and national security. However, one such conflict has remained in the shadows until now. JFK vs. Allen Dulles: Battleground Indonesia takes reader to the vast archipelago 3,350 miles wide where this secret showdown occurred.

In 1936, an Allen Dulles-established company discovered the world's largest gold deposit in remote Netherlands New Guinea. In 1962, President Kennedy intervened, and Netherlands New Guinea was added to President Sukarno's Indonesia. Neither Sukarno nor JFK was aware of the gold, since Dulles had not informed Kennedy.

Dulles planned a complicated and ruthless CIA regime-change strategy to seize control not only of Indonesia itself, but also of its vast resources, including the gold. This strategy included a push to start Malaysian Confrontation. Yet Kennedy's plan to visit Jakarta in early 1964 would have sunk Dulles' master plan, which included the destruction of the Indonesian communist party as a wedge to split Moscow and Beijing. Only an assassin's bullet put an end to Kennedy's plan of peace. Did Allen Dulles arrange for JFK to be killed to save his plan and his gold? Was his coup for gold successful with JFK out of the picture?

Using archival records as a basis, Greg Poulgrain adds word-of-mouth evidence from those people who were directly involved-such as Dean Rusk and others who worked with President Kennedy and Allen Dulles at the time; or the person who was with Michael Rockefeller when he mysteriously disappeared in West New Guinea during this whole affair.

"What did Allen Dulles know that meant JFK and Sukarno both had to go? How did Sukarno's Non-Aligned Movement shake Dulles's Cold War chessboard? How was JFK about to turn it over? Greg Poulgrain blazes the way brilliantly. Follow the dark trail from the world's largest gold deposit, to the murder in Dallas, to the CIA coup and genocide in Indonesia." -James W. Douglass, author of JFK and the Unspeakable

"Dr. Poulgrain is to be commended for exposing definitively, at long last and despite vehement government denials, the CIA-Suharto alliance that toppled Sukarno in Indonesia, leading to the slaughter of at least half a million innocent people. The template for regime change, reused in Iraq and other conflicts, is laid bare for all to see. Poulgrain's work fills a significant hole in our history-the importance of Indonesia on the large battlefield of interests that put Allen Dulles and John F. Kennedy on a fatal collision course." -Lisa Pease, author of A Lie Too Big to Fail: The Real History of the Assassination of Robert F. Kennedy

Barack Obama, Sr., who met Dunham in 1959 in a Russian language class at the University of Hawaii, had been part of what was described as an airlift of 280 East African students to the United States to attend various colleges - merely "aided" by a grant from the Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation, according to a September 12, 1960, Reuters report from London. The airlift was a CIA operation to train and indoctrinate future agents of influence in Africa, which was becoming a battleground between the United States and the Soviet Union and China for influence among newly-independent and soon-to-be independent countries on the continent.

The airlift was condemned by the deputy leader of the opposition Kenyan African Democratic Union (KADU) as favoring certain tribes - the majority Kikuyus and minority Luos - over other tribes to favor the Kenyan African National Union (KANU), whose leader was Tom Mboya, the Kenyan nationalist and labor leader who selected Obama, Sr. for a scholarship at the University of Hawaii. Obama, Sr., who was already married with an infant son and pregnant wife in Kenya, married Dunham on Maui on February 2, 1961 and was also the university's first African student. Dunham was three month's pregnant with Barack Obama, Jr. at the time of her marriage to Obama, Sr.

This fits the Barrack Obama Jr. being planned for Indonesia or elsewhere theory with him living under perhaps one of several possible birth certificates including possibly an attempt by the Rockefeller's to plant on in Papua New Guinea.

Michael Clark Rockefeller

Michael Clark Rockefeller (May 18, 1938; disappeared November 19, 1961) was a member of the Rockefeller family. He was a son of New York Governor and later U.S. Vice President Nelson Rockefeller, a grandson of American financier John D. Rockefeller Jr., and a great-grandson of Standard Oil co-founder John D. Rockefeller Sr.

Rockefeller disappeared during an expedition in the Asmat region of southwestern Dutch New Guinea, which is now a part of the Indonesian province of South Papua. In 2014, Carl Hoffman published a book that included details from the official inquest into the disappearance, in which villagers and tribal elders admitted to Rockefeller being killed and eaten after swimming to shore in 1961. Rockefeller's twin sister wrote in a memoir published in 2012 that she believes her brother drowned. No remains of Rockefeller or physical proof of his death have been discovered.

The Region of Australia an USAID Area of Consideration

Papua New Guinea, officially the Independent State of Papua New Guinea, is an island country in Oceania that comprises the eastern half of the island of New Guinea and offshore islands in Melanesia, a region of the southwestern Pacific Ocean north of Australia. It has a land border with Indonesia to the west and neighbours Australia to the south and the Solomon Islands to the east. Its capital, on its southern coast, is Port Moresby. The country is the world's third largest island country, with an area of 462,840 km^2 (178,700 sq mi).

The nation was split in the 1880s between German New Guinea in the North and the British Territory of Papua in the South, the latter of which was ceded to Australia in 1902. All of present-day Papua New Guinea came under Australian control following World War I, with the legally distinct Territory of New Guinea being established out of the former German colony as a League of Nations mandate. The nation was the site of fierce fighting during the New Guinea campaign of World War II. Papua New Guinea became an independent Commonwealth realm in 1975 with Elizabeth II as its Queen. Since Elizabeth II's death in 2022, Charles III has been the King.

There are 840 known languages of Papua New Guinea (including English), making it the most linguistically diverse country in the world. It is also one of the most rural countries, with only 14% of its population living in urban centres in 2023. Most of its people live in customary communities. Although government estimates reported the country's population to be 11.8 million, it was reported in December 2022 that its population was in fact closer to 17 million. Papua New Guinea is the most populous Pacific island country. The country's wildlife is considered megadiverse, and it is believed that there are many further undocumented species of plants and animals.

Papua New Guinea is classified as a developing economy by the International Monetary Fund; nearly 40% of the population are subsistence farmers, living relatively independently of the cash economy. Their traditional social groupings are explicitly acknowledged by the Papua New Guinea Constitution, which expresses the wish for "traditional villages and communities to remain as viable units of Papua New Guinean society" and protects their continuing importance to local and national community life. Papua New Guinea has been an observer state in the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) since 1976, and has filed its application for full membership status. It is a full member of the Commonwealth of Nations, the Pacific Community, the Pacific Islands Forum, and the United Nations.

Lyndon B. Johnson and Richard Nixon had in common the Pafic War participation in this area and the awarness of islands proximal to the land mass of Australia.

CIA Family Connection-Ann Dunham

Obama's record as president should not have been surprising given his family background.

His mother, Ann Dunham, worked for U.S. government agencies and allied NGOs-the Ford Foundation, Asia Foundation, Development Alternatives Inc., and United States Agency for International Development (USAID)-in Indonesia in the 1960s and 1970s as well as Ghana, Nepal, Bangladesh, Pakistan, India, and Thailand.

Ann had training in the Russian language which, with everything combined, made her a "CIA recruiter's wet dream."[8]

The microfinancing projects that she worked on to help turn traditional craft industries into sustainable businesses were designed to "tether third world masses to the mentality of finance capitalism," as Obama's unauthorized biographer put it.

Dunham's boss at USAID in Indonesia, Dr. Donald Gordon Jr., author of Credit for Small Farmers in Developing Countries for USAID (1976), was identified in Julius Mader's 1968 book, Who Who's in the CIA, as a CIA agent.[9]

Another boss, Peter Geithner, was future Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner's father.

Ann obtained her Bachelor's and Master's degree in anthropology at the University of Hawaii, writing a thesis which argued that Indonesian villagers were dynamic and could produce greater wealth if they had access to market incentives and capital.

Ann went to Indonesia in the mid 1960s at the time that the CIA supported a military coup led by General Suharto against the left-wing regime of Sukarno.

Over two million suspected members of the Indonesian Communist Party (PKI) were rounded up and massacred in its aftermath and thousands more were imprisoned-many for decades.

Much of Ann's anthropological and consulting field work was carried out in East and Central Java, which provided a hotbed of support for the PKI-including among members of the Javanese women's association and labor federation.

The CIA at this time employed anthropologists and development workers as undercover agents to gather information on villagers' political affiliations, in which Ann, according to her thesis adviser, Alice Dewey, had taken an interest.

After her arrival in Indonesia, Dunham taught English at the American Embassy in Jakarta, which also housed one of the largest CIA stations in Asia and had significant satellite stations in Surabaya in eastern Java and Medan on Sumatra.

Dunham also worked for the Indonesian-American Friendship Institute in Jakarta, a suspected CIA front. One of her closest colleagues, Adi Sasono, had been the leader of the Muslim students during the overthrow of Sukarno.

While Ann's recruitment as a CIA agent has never been openly acknowledged, she was among the few U.S. government employees with the language skills and access to fulfill this role effectively. Development projects in the region were explicitly designed to pry villagers away from the PKI orbit, and Ann's work would have contributed to this.

In March 1965, Ann married an Indonesian Lieutenant Colonel, Lolo Soetoro, whom she met at the University of Hawaii's East-West Center, a "kinder, gentler version of the School of the Americas," according to one writer, and "cover for a training program in which Southeast Asians were brought to Hawaii and trained to go back to create agent nets," as U.S. Information Service (USIS) Director Frank Scotten described it.

The head of the East-West Center in 1965 was Howard P. Jones, U.S. ambassador to Indonesia from 1958 to 1965.[10]

Jones was present in Jakarta as Suharto and his CIA-backed military officers planned the 1965 overthrow of Sukarno, who was seen, along with the PKI as an ally of China.

Jones later defended the coup in The Washington Post, writing that Suharto was merely responding to a communist coup against Sukarno led by Colonel Untung-which was actually set up by the CIA.[11]

A friend of Ann's told her biographer that the marriage to Lolo was arranged, suggesting that Ann may have acted as a female "honeypot" for the CIA whose job was to recruit assets and help them obtain U.S. citizenship.

Hailing from an aristocratic family which lost out in Sukarno's land reform, Soetoro was recalled to active duty in July 1965 before General Suharto's right-wing coup and worked as an army geographer in Java and Papua New Guinea, where the Indonesian army brutally suppressed popular revolts.

Soetoro went on to become an executive at Mobil Oil and its liaison to Suharto, whose economic policies Dunham praised.

On October 1, 1943, future president Richard Nixon was promoted to lieutenant. Nixon commanded the SCAT forward detachments at Vella Lavella, Bougainville, and finally at Nissan Island.

The Battle of the Green Islands or Operation Squarepeg was fought from 15 to 20 February 1944, between Imperial Japan and Al lied forces from the New Zealand 3rd Division and the United States. Undertaken after landings to secure lodgments on New Britain and Bougainville, the main focus of the operation was the capture of Nissan Island, which was secured by New Zealand forces after only a short ground campaign. At only very limited cost in terms of casualties, the Allied operation resulted in the capture of several small atolls in the island chain, which were subsequently used to support air and naval operations focused on reducing the main Japanese base on Rabaul.

Background

The Green Islands, consisting of several small coral atolls, are located between Bougainville and New Ireland, about 150 miles (240 km) from Rabaul, which was the location of the main Japanese base in the area. At the time of the battle, they were part of the Australian Territory of New Guinea and were populated by around 1,200 Melanesians. The atolls form a rough circle, with the main island, Nissan, forming a west-facing crescent shape closed off by several smaller islands separated from the main landmass by small passages that open up into a large internal lagoon roughly 4 nautical miles (7.4 km; 4.6 mi) in width.

In October 1942, he was given his first assignment as aide to the commander of the Naval Air Station Ottumwa in Wapello County, Iowa, until May 1943. Seeking more excitement, he requested sea duty; on July 2, 1943, he was assigned to Marine Aircraft Group 25 and the South Pacific Combat Air Transport Command (SCAT), where he supported the logistics of operations in the South Pacific theater during World War II. [These are the islands in Papua New Guinea LBJ was serving in or other islands near the coast of Australia.]

Nissan Island is the largest of the Green Islands of Papua New Guinea. It is located at 4°30′S 154°13′E, about 200 km east of Rabaul on New Britain and about 200 km north-west of Bougainville. The island is administered under Nissan Rural LLG in the Autonomous Region of Bougainville. -Wikipedia

Chapter 17 of the Tell All book Double Cross by the Gaincana family in their own patriotic duty to set the record straight as to history (the family NOT on their deathbed fearing or hoping for any consequences to the truth) contains the pictures of the major crime figures and two key outcomes of the Outfit attack on the USA. The scene of the ambulance at Norma Jean's home and the Kennedy assassination photo of Kennedy in the car with his entourage. These were the actions of the CIA.

In a corroborating and similar tell all by Gaincana cohort Chauncey Marvin Holt book Self Portrait of a Scoundrel the appendix Documents and Photos holds many of the images of the figures and documents of history he was revealing. But again in Double Cross by the Gaincana family their gifts to historians and justice as told by images is concentrated in the book's Chapter 17 where the US Congress and the Kennedy family go toe-to-toe with the Mafia.

Here is a list of the figures and events of history the Gaincana (and Chauncey Marvin Holt and Meyers Lanksy) family are connected to by their own story telling in the order the string of photos and captions to the photos appear in.

GUS GREENBAUM. (AP/WIDE WORLD)

> Gus Greenbaum was an American gangster in the casino industry, best known for taking over management of the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas after the murder of co-founder Bugsy Siegel. Born: February 26, 1893, Phoenix, AZ Died: December 3, 1958 (age 65 years), Encanto Village, AZ - Wikipedia

TONY ACCARDO. CAP/ WIDE WORLD)

> Anthony Joseph Accardo (/əˈkɑːrdoʊ/; born Antonino Leonardo Accardo, Italian: [antoˈniːno leoˈnardo akˈkardo]; April 28, 1906 - May 22, 1992), also known as "Joe Batters" and "Big Tuna",[1] was an American longtime mobster. In a criminal career that spanned eight decades, he rose from small-time hoodlum to the position of day-to-day boss of the Chicago Outfit in 1947, to ultimately becoming the power behind the throne in the Outfit by 1972. Accardo moved the Outfit into new operations and territories, significantly increasing its power and wealth during his tenure as boss. - Wikipedia

JIMMY HOFFA. CAP/ WIDE WORLD)

> James Riddle Hoffa (born February 14, 1913 - disappeared July 30, 1975, declared dead July 30, 1982) was an American labor union leader who served as the president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters (IBT) from 1957 until 1971.

He is notorious for his alleged ties to organized crime and for his disappearance under mysterious circumstances in 1975.

From an early age, Hoffa was a union activist: he became an important regional figure with the IBT by his mid-20s. By 1952, he was the national vice-president of the IBT and between 1957 and 1971 he was its general president. Hoffa secured the first national agreement for teamsters' rates in 1964 with the National Master Freight Agreement. He played a major role in the growth and the development of the union, which eventually became the largest by membership in the United States, with over 2.3 million members at its peak, during his terms as its leader.

Hoffa became involved with organized crime from the early years of his Teamsters work, a connection that continued until his disappearance. He was convicted of jury tampering, attempted bribery, conspiracy, along with mail and wire fraud in 1964 in two separate trials. He was imprisoned in 1967 and sentenced to 13 years.

In mid-1971, he resigned as president of the union as part of a commutation agreement with U.S. president Richard Nixon and was released later that year, but he was barred from union activities until 1980. Hoping to regain support and to return to IBT leadership, he unsuccessfully tried to overturn the order.

Hoffa disappeared on July 30, 1975. He is generally thought to have been murdered by the Mafia, and was declared legally dead in 1982. Hoffa's legacy and the circumstances of his disappearance continue to stir debate.

CARLOS MARCELLO. CAP/ WIDE WORLD)

Carlos Joseph Marcello[1] (Sicilian Italian);[Mor-sel-lo] born Calogero Minacore [kaˈlɔːdʒero minaˈkɔːre]; February 6, 1910 - March 3, 1993) was an Italian-American crime boss of the New Orleans crime family from 1947 to 1983. Aside from his role in the American Mafia, he is also notorious for the reason that G. Robert Blakey and others have alleged that Carlos Marcello, Santo Trafficante Jr., and Sam Gaincana conspired in the 1963 assassination of U.S. President John F. Kennedy in retaliation for federal investigations and prosecutions that threatened both the power and the multibillion-dollar profits of organized crime. - Wikipedia

JOHNNY ROSELLI AP/WORLD WIDE

John "Handsome Johnny" Roselli (born Filippo Sacco; July 4, 1905 - August 7, 1976), sometimes spelled Rosselli, was a mobster for the Chicago Outfit who helped that organization exert influence over Hollywood and the Las Vegas Strip. Roselli was recruited by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in a plot to assassinate Cuban leader Fidel Castro.

SANTO TRAFICANTE, JR.

Santo Trafficante Jr. (November 15, 1914 - March 17, 1987) was among the most powerful Mafia bosses in the United States. He headed the Trafficante crime family from 1954 to 1987 and controlled organized criminal operations in Florida and Cuba, which had previously been consolidated from several rival gangs by his father, Santo Trafficante Sr.

Trafficante maintained links to the Bonanno crime family in New York City, but was more closely allied with Sam Gaincana in Chicago. Consequently, while generally recognized as the most powerful organized crime figure in Florida throughout much of the 20th century, Trafficante was not believed to have total control over Miami, Miami Beach, Ft. Lauderdale, or Palm Beach. The east coast of Florida was a loosely knit conglomerate of New York family interests with links to Meyer Lansky, Bugsy Siegel, Angelo Bruno, Carlos Marcello, and Frank Ragano.

Trafficante admitted his anti-Castro activities to the United States House Select Committee on Assassinations in 1978, and vehemently denied allegations that he had knowledge of a plot to assassinate President John F. Kennedy. Federal investigators brought racketeering and conspiracy charges against him in the summer of 1986.

CHUCK NICOLETTI. CAP/ WIDE WORLD)

Charles Nicoletti (/ˌnɪkəˈlɛti/; December 3, 1916 - March 29, 1977), also known as "Chuckie the Typewriter", was an American mobster of the Chicago Outfit, who served as hitman under boss Sam Gaincana before and after Giancana's rise and fall. Nicoletti was murdered on March 29, 1977.

FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO. (AP/WIDE WORLD)

Felix Anthony "Milwaukee Phil" Alderisio (April 26, 1912 - September 25, 1971) was an American enforcer, bagman, hitman and burglar for the Chicago Outfit. He was underboss to Sam Gaincana during the 196'0s and boss from 1967 to his imprisonment in 1969. - Wikipedia

RICHARD CAIN. CAP/ WIDE WORLD)

Richard Cain (October 4, 1931 - December 20, 1973), also known as Richard Scalzitti, was a notoriously corrupt Chicago police officer and a close associate of Mafia boss Sam Gaincana.

Richard Cain was born to John and Lydia (née Scully) Cain - who were Irish-American and Italian-American, respectively - in Chicago, Illinois. Cain was raised in Chicago and Michigan after his parents divorced. He joined the U.S. Army at the age of 17 and was stationed in the United States Virgin Islands from 1947 to 1950. While there, he became fluent in Spanish. Before returning to Chicago in 1951, Cain worked as an investigator at the Burns Detective Agency in Dallas, Texas.

Despite his grandfather having been a prominent sewer contractor who was killed by the Chicago Outfit in Little Italy, in 1928,[2] Cain would later become a close associate of Sam Gaincana. While Cain worked as an officer in the Chicago Police Department (CPD) during the mid-1950s, he served as a bagman between corrupt police officials and the Outfit.

Double deal and disgrace. Taking a leave of absence from the CPD in 1960, Cain was assigned as an investigator for Assistant U.S. Attorney Richard Ogilvie in his investigation of Outfit boss Anthony Accardo.

Cain alluded to having been deported from Mexico in 1961 after helping train Cuban-Americans for the Bay of Pigs invasion. After his death, "Washington sources" confirmed "off-the-record" that these claims were true.[3] He also claimed to have worked with the U.S. State Department "tracing the flow of American money into Communist hands." - Wikipedia

> Nicoletti said that three other planes also landed in California that week-in San Francisco-carrying four other men. Mooney had selected a trusted assassin, Needles Gianola, to coordinate the job. Needles, in turn, brought his sidekick, Mugsy Tortorella, on board and two other professional killers-one from Kansas City and one from Detroit. The four men had gone to California, under Mooney's orders, to murder Marilyn Monroe.
> Eavesdropping nearby, where the electronic surveillance equipment had been set up by Bernie Spindel, the killers patiently waited for the attorney general to arrive. Bobby Kennedy finally did appear at Marilyn's home, late on Saturday, accompanied by another man. Listening in on the conversation, Mooney's men ascertained that Marilyn was more than a little angry at Bobby. She became agitated -hysterical, in fact-and in response, they heard Kennedy instruct the man with him, evidently a doctor, to give her a shot to "calm her down." Shortly thereafter, the attorney general and the doctor left.

The killers waited for the cover of darkness and, sometime before midnight, entered Marilyn's home. She struggled at first, it was said, but already drugged by the injected sedative, thanks to Bobby's doctor friend, their rubber-gloved hands easily forced her nude body to the bed.

Calmly, and with all the efficiency of a team of surgeons, they taped her mouth shut and proceeded to insert a specially "doctored" Nembutal suppository into her anus.

Then they waited.

The suppository, which Nicoletti said had been prepared by the same Chicago chemist who concocted the numerous chemical potions for the Castro hit[.]

The Polka Dot file ties the assassination of RFK to Nixon with Australia as a factor in that. Who Killed RFK by Shane Osslulivan also ties it to the USIAD program interests eetup in the 1950's (per Col Prouty under Nixon in 1958) to take over Indonesia.

SAM "MOONEY" GIANCANA'S BODY LIES ON A STRETCHER IN THE COOK COUNTY (CHICAGO ILLINOIS) MORGUE. CAP/ WIDE WORLD)

iancana was born in Chicago to Italian immigrant parents. He joined the 42 Gang as a teenager, developing a reputation in organized crime, which gained him the notice of the leaders of the Chicago Outfit, which he joined during the late 1930's. From the 1940's through the 1950's, he controlled illegal gambling, illegal liquor distribution, and political rackets in Louisiana. In the early 1940's, Gaincana was involved in a takeover of Chicago's black American lottery payout system for the Outfit. In 1957, he became the boss of the Chicago Outfit.

According to some sources, Gaincana and the Mafia were involved in John F. Kennedy's victory in the 1960 presidential election. During the 196'0s, he was recruited by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in a plot to assassinate Cuban leader Fidel Castro. Conspiracy theorists consider Gaincana, along with Mafia leaders Santo Trafficante Jr. and Carlos Marcello, to be associated with the assassination of John F. Kennedy. In 1965, Gaincana was convicted of contempt of court, serving one year in prison. After his release from prison, Gaincana fled to Cuernavaca, Mexico. In 1974, he was deported to the United States, returning to Chicago. Gaincana was murdered on June 19, 1975, in Oak Park, Illinois, shortly before he was scheduled to appear before the Church Committee. - Wikipedia

A the Kennedy brothers JFK and RFK fight the Mafia Trafficante put a hit out on Joseph Kennedy Sr. who seems to have helped the USAID Indonesia plan though that plan is not mentioned in detail in the book. Marilyn Monroe is mentioned as a CIA operative to frame Sukarno with KOMPROMAT in an affair. Feeling double crossed the hit goes out on Joseph Kennedy Sr. but JK Sr. contacts Gaincana and the hit is called off. Giancan does expect to "own" the Kennedy family after that though.

Days before Holt died Voice Over the off screen TV interviewer of Holt gave this interview

VO: Chauncey Holt continued his association with the CIA during the 1960's and 1970's. He played a role in covert operations in Brazil, Laos and Chile. At the same time Holt maintained his close friendship and business interests with mafia boss Peter Licavoli until the mobster's death in 1984. Holt also continued to be deeply involved through the years with attorney Frank Belcher with whom he maintained a joint banking account at the Bank of America in Burbank, CA. Many of Holt's CIA contract agent "projects" were funded and funneled through this special account.

In 1975 the CIA began to purge rogue contract agents, aka "cowboys" from its employ. Some were forced into retirement, while others like Chauncey Holt ended up in prison. On January 2, 1976, Holt had written a letter to his old CIA ally William King Harvey apprising him of his recent indictment by a federal grand jury. Harvey responded by saying he could only offer "token assistance." Harvey did offer to send Chauncey some CIA documents that were about to be declassified. These records proved that Holt worked for the Clandestine Operations of the Central Intelligence Agency.

As recounted elsewhere, Operation Mongoose was revived and a number of contract agents, as well as the Cubans and gangsters like Gaincana, Licavoli, Roselli, Traficante and Rothman, who answered to Lansky, were involved in these attempts on Castro, many of which were not only ludicrous but bordered on lunacy.

On December 14, 1961, I [Chauncey Holt one of the trainyard hobos working for William King Harvey known as Mr H) attended a meeting at Bermuda Dunes Airport, a proprietary interest of the CIA, operated by Ray Ryan and an old time pilot by the name of Ernie Dunlevie. This was the only meeting I attended where most of the principals involved in the plot to assassinate Fidel Castro were present. Those present included William King Harvey, Peter Licavoli, Sam Gaincana, Johnny Roselli, Ray Ryan and Frank Hayden. Ernie Dunlevie was not present. I acted as the secretary and I still have the handwritten notes of that meeting.

It was decided that the ZR/RIFLE program would be applied to Cuba. There would be maximum security and non-attributability in regard to this project. The term "Kubark" and "Kutube/D Search" were assigned to the plan. We were advised not to us "AM" but rather "Mongoose" when referring to this project. Operations would be implemented through word of mouth, person to person, singleton ops and nothing on paper. We were assured that phony 201 files would be inserted in the central registry and backdated. I was assigned Q J/ lose and was instructed to prepare the necessary forged documents. All this would be implemented through Special Group (augmented), coded Task 33.

9 Months after the meeting with William King Harvey and Sam Giacana and John Roselli these same crowd will kill Marilyn Monroe. Monroe was going to reveal the ongoing CIA overthrows operation and thus she was silenced. A member of the Greek Community in Chicago learned of the operation from their own mouths and also was silenced. Johnny Roselli is a very central figured named by others and in declassified CIA and FBI documents in the national archives.

Roselli agree to introduce Maheu to "Sam Gold." At this point the Report refers to a memorandum prepared by Edwards, dated 14 May 1962, re money not paid to ... https://www.archives.gov/files/research/jfk/releases/180-10141-10406.pdf

This CIA task force was to assassinate Castro (and I believe other operations) and did assassinate "leakers" RFK, JFK, and Marilyn Monroe and others.

In 1998, Carmen was the subject of a TV episode titled "Jeanne Carmen: Queen of the B-Movies" on the series E! True Hollywood Story. The show stated that Carmen maintained a "dangerously close friendship with Marilyn Monroe and The Kennedys" and that after the death of Monroe, Carmen was told to leave town by Johnny Rosselli who was working for Chicago Mob Boss Sam Gaincana. Believing her life was in danger, she fled to Scottsdale, Arizona, where she lived incognito for more than a decade. Carmen abandoned her platinum-blonde locks, had three children, and lived a quiet life, never mentioning her prior life in Hollywood.

[2 mins 14 s] The second personal anecdote that I have is is uh related to my Greek family extended Greek family in Chicago.

Story Goes that a 18-year-old girl named Eugenia Pappas was an attractive Greek girl who was a hair stylist in distant relative in the Greek family and she befriended a man named Frank Schweihs. Frank Schweihs it turns out was in the mafia but Eugenia dated him and relates to the story of travelingh from puke airport uh a group of uh Hitmen that flew to Los Angeles on the morning uh of uh August the 4th (1962) the day that Marilyn Monroe died.

The hit men went to a party and then they left the party and then they came back after a while and then they next day they flew back to uh Chicago.

Eugenia relates later after she broke up with Frank Schweihs that that this was a hit on Marilyn Monroe on orders from Sam Gaincana. Now subsequently Eugenia Pappas was killed uh and was found in the Chicago River. Several months later and many of the people that had been involved with the Marilyn Monroe murder were sworn to see secrecy including a jean Carman uh who was one of Marilyn's girlfriends she later wrote a book called uh my Wild Wild Life and Jean Carman went into hiding for uh 16 years uh until Sam Gaincana died was killed and then came out of hiding and tells her story of the mafia involvement in the murder of Marilyn Monroe.

5 mins 10 seconds. Sam and Chuck Gaincana involving the Marilyn Monroe murder. was bugged as well one other piece of information that 5:12 I think is interesting is in a book uh by Sam and Chuck Gaincana uh 5:18 involving the Maryland Monroe murder they mentioned that a suppository was concocted by University chemist that had 5:25 Nembutal (Nembutal is a prescription sedative that has medical value but is dangerous when misused. Chloral hydrate is a geminal diol with the formula Cl 3C−CH(OH) 2. It was first used as a sedative and hypnotic in Germany in the 1870s.) and chlorohydrate uh and that this suppository was a part of the CIA Mafia 5:31 plan to kill Fidel Castro uh and that the mafia had this supposed to available 5:38 and had used it on some of their own uh victims uh and verified that indeed it did work in fact they found that with 5:45 Marilyn Monroe she had 15 times the Fatal level of chlorohydrate and Nembutal 5:52 uh in her bloodstream that time she died and this had in my opinion been most likely from a suppository you couldn't 5:59 get that many pills down somebody's stomach uh and uh get that high of a drug 6:06 level also Jean Carmen relates that Marilyn had called her uh the night that 6:12 she died and asked for sleeping pills because she was out of sleeping pills Jee Carman declined and said I don't 6:19 have any either but it's interesting that here Maryland was out of sleeping pills and yet she's been accused of 6:25 taking an overdose of sleeping pills uh less than an hour after she had called Jee Carman so it's 6:32 unlikely that Marilyn died from ingestion of Nembutal chlorohydrate pills.

14:13 greenson has Unice Murray the housekeeper stay at the house that night she doesn't normally stay at the house 14:19 but Unice Murray uh stays at the house and she's going to stay there all night this is kind of a little mixup in the 14:26 original plan the original plan would be that Marilyn would be discovered dead that following morning the police would 14:31 be called and there's be an investigation and Robert Kennedy's name would get dragged into it and so on and 14:37 so forth but with Unice Murray there as Jean Carman relates the story The Hitman 14:43 also abused Unice Murray that night in other words Marilyn wasn't the only 14:48 victim that night that Unice Murray was intimidate she was told you will tell the 14:55 police that Bobby Kennedy had been here earlier and you will not talk about our 15:00 presence here tonight if you do we'll come back and finish you off and finish 15:06 off your family that's my opinion that there are probably death threats against Unice Murray if she didn't call the 15:11 police so now Unice Murray had a dilemma after the Hitman left uh should she go 15:17 ahead and call the police and wait until that next morning or should she call Peter Lawford and and let him know what just transpired.

DOUBLE CROSS: THE EXPLOSIVE INSIDE STORY OF THE MOBSTER WHO CONTROLLED AMERICA

Although most Americans have known little up until now about Sam Giancana's impact on the nation, it's precisely this lack of knowledge that has made writing Double Cross so necessary. Tired of the blatant misinformation and inaccuracies that have continued to be reported on topics ranging from the St. Valentine's Day Massacre to the death of Marilyn Monroe and the assassination of John F. Kennedy, we decided it was time, once and for all, to tell the story of these events as Sam Gaincana related it. The resulting revelations contained in Double Cross, although shocking, speak for themselves.

Thus, we now present what was confided to Chuck Gaincana by his brother Sam Gaincana as the truth of the times. It should be added that we do so with much sadness and no small measure of fear. This is a sordid and diffcult legacy-and one we did not choose. It's therefore our desire that, after completing the book, the reader will not find those bearing the Gaincana name guilty, by association, with a man who so destructively changed the course of history.

From what Chuck could learn from his brother, in the late fifties and early sixties, Marilyn's desire to achieve stardom, coupled with her childlike desire to please, was exploited by the Outfit and the CIA, as well: Her sexual charms were employed by the CIA to frame world leaders-among them President Sukarno of Indonesia. Mooney insisted that using Monroe as bait, the CIA had successfully compromised leaders from Asia to the Middle East.

And Marilyn, perhaps more because she enjoyed the attentions of the world's most powerful men than for reasons of patriotism, had been a willing participant in the intrigue.

By June of 1962, Marilyn's film career was losing momentum; she'd become unreliable and deeply troubled. Early that summer, Mooney told Chuck he'd had a former FBI agent and a detective working on Marilyn's surveillance and in so doing had received a wealth of information about the starlet's habits, her emotional state, and stormy love life.

From what he'd learned, Mooney believed Marilyn's use to Chicago and the CIA was dwindling.

Later, Chuck would surmise that Marilyn Monroe's knowledge of CIA-Outfit collaborative efforts coupled with her increasingly severe emotional instability had become a dangerous combination. And that by July, thanks to a failing relationship with Bobby Kennedy, she had become not only expendable but -when Mooney received reports of her threats to Bobby Kennedy to "blow the lid off the whole damn thing"-a frightening liability, as well.

According to guys in the Outfit, it was at this time that the CIA, fearful of exposure by the vengeful, drug-addicted Monroe, requested that Mooney have her eliminated. And Mooney, smelling blood, seized on the CIA contract as a way to achieve another objective, as well. By murdering Monroe, it might be possible to depose the rulers of Camelot.

One week before her death, a distraught Marilyn Monroe flew in to Lake Tahoe's Cal-Neva Lodge. Unbeknownst to her, Mooney had orchestrated the invitation. Among the guests that weekend was a man Mooney jokingly referred to as "Peter the Rabbit" Lawford.

The killers waited for the cover of darkness and, sometime before midnight, entered Marilyn's home. She struggled at first, it was said, but already drugged by the injected sedative, thanks to Bobby's doctor friend, their rubber-gloved hands easily forced her nude body to the bed. Calmly, and with all the efficiency of a team of surgeons, they taped her mouth shut and proceeded to insert a specially "doctored" Nembutal suppository into her anus. Then they waited.

Sam and Chuck Gaincana

The death of Doroth Killgalen could be tied to Sam Gaincana.

Killgallen died of barbiturate poisoning, Sound familiar? Pentobarbital (Nembutal) is a short-acting barbiturate sedative-hypnotic that is widely used in veterinary practice for anesthesia and euthanasia.

Adam Ronald Pataky was born in Danville, Illinois, on 21st May, 1935. His father owned a heating and air conditioning business. In 1950 the family moved to Columbus, Ohio. After high school Pataky attended Stanford University but failed to graduate.

Pataky returned to Columbus and graduated from Ohio State University with a degree in journalism in 1959. In 1961, he was hired as a film and drama critic for the Columbus Citizen-Journal.

In June, 1964, Pataky went on a trip paid for by Twentieth Century-Fox who used it to publicize three of its films: The Sound of Music, The Agony and the Ecstasy and Those Magnificent Men in Their Flying Machines. On the trip he met and began a relationship with fellow journalist, Dorothy Kilgallen. This relationship was kept a secret. In her book, Kilgallen (1979), Lee Israel gives Pataky the name of "Out-of-Towner". Apparently Pataky went up to Kilgallen and asked her if she was Clare Booth Luce.

It has been suggested by John Simkin that Kilgallen suspected that "Out-of-Towner" was a CIA spy. She therefore told her friends this is what he said so that if anything happened to her, a future investigator would realize that he was a CIA agent with links to Clare Booth Luce.

On 8th November, 1965, Dorothy Kilgallen, was found dead in her New York apartment. She was fully dressed and sitting upright in her bed. The police reported that she had died from taking a cocktail of alcohol and barbiturates. The notes for the chapter she was writing on the assassination of John F. Kennedy had disappeared.

The police reported that she had died from taking a cocktail of alcohol and barbiturates. The notes for the chapter she was writing on the assassination of John F. Kennedy had disappeared.

Some of her friends believed Kilgallen had been murdered. Marc Sinclaire was Kilgallen's personal hairdresser. He often woke Kilgallen in the morning. Kilgallen was usually out to the early hours of the morning and like her husband always slept late. When he found her body he immediately concluded she had been murdered.

(1) Kilgallen was not sleeping in her normal bedroom. Instead she was in the master bedroom, a room she had not occupied for several years.

(2) Kilgallen was wearing false eyelashes. According to Sinclaire she always took her eyelashes off before she went to bed.

(3) She was found sitting up with the book, The Honey Badger, by Robert Ruark, on her lap. Sinclaire claims that she had finished reading the book several weeks earlier (she had discussed the book with Sinclaire at the time).

(4) Kilgallen had poor eyesight and could only read with the aid of glasses. Her glasses were not found in the bedroom where she died.

(5) Kilgallen was found wearing a bolero-type blouse over a nightgown. Sinclaire claimed that this was the kind of thing "she would never wear to go to bed".

Mark Lane also believed that Kilgallen had been murdered. He said that "I would bet you a thousand-to-one that the CIA surrounded her (Kilgallen) as soon as she started writing those stories." The only new person who became close to Kilgallen during the last few months was Pataky.

Pataky left his job with the Columbus Citizen-Journalin 1980. He later worked as a artist-photographer. He also worked as a Christian counsellor. In 1993, the investigative reporter, David Herschel, discovered that "Out-of-Towner" was Pataky. In an interview with Herschel, Pataky admitted that he worked on articles about the assassination of John F. Kennedy with Dorothy Kilgallen. Pataky also confessed to meeting Kilgallen several times in the Regency Hotel. However, he denied Lee Israel's claim that he was with her on the night of her death. In December, 2005, Lee Israel admitted that the "Out-of-Towner" was Ron Pataky and that "he had something to do with it (the murder of Dorothy Kilgallen)".

https://padailypost.com/2018/12/03/local-author-says-columnist-cracked-the-jfk-case-in-1965-just-before-she-was-murdered/ Local author and attorney Marj Shaw says columnist cracked the JFK case in 1965, just before she was murdered.

BY DAVE PRICE Daily Post Editor

Mark Shaw, an investigative reporter and author from Burlingame, is out with a new book that connects the dots in the biggest crime story of the past century, the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

One of the most tantalizing facts in his new book, “Denial of Justice,” is that Jack Ruby, the man who gunned down JFK assassin Lee Harvey Oswald on national television, was in a Dallas newspaper building by a window overlooking Kennedy’s motorcade on that fateful afternoon of Nov. 22, 1963, when Kennedy was killed. Several witnesses saw Ruby there at the time of the shooting.

“Ruby obviously knew about the assassination before it happened,” Shaw told me in an interview last week. That revelation and other evidence in the book blows apart FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover’s claim that Oswald acted alone and points to a conspiracy led by New Orleans Mafia boss Carlos Marcello.

Poisoning death -Shaw landed upon this new information after writing the bestseller “The Reporter Who Knew Too Much,” which detailed how journalist and “What’s My Line?” panelist Dorothy Kilgallen was poisoned in 1965 while she was investigating the assassination.

Dorothy Kilgallen, in the hallway of a Texas courthouse, clutches the file of notes and documents she was collecting in the JFK assassination case. Photo courtesy of Mark Shaw. Shaw’s meticulous investigation showed that Kilgallen died when her drink was spiked with three lethal drugs by a man with whom she was having an affair, an Ohio newspaper columnist. But it’s likely he was spying on her at the behest of the FBI, the Mafia or both.

After the release of the “Reporter Who Knew Too Much,” Shaw was able to obtain the long-buried 2,000-page transcript of Ruby’s 1964 trial.

At the time, reporters didn’t pay much attention to the trial because, after all, Ruby shot Oswald on TV in the basement of the Dallas police station. It was open and shut, they thought. Nobody cared about who might have put Ruby up to killing Oswald. And besides, the media was uniformly pushing the government’s official line that Oswald acted alone. San Francisco lawyer’s role . But the trial transcripts gave Shaw a lot of new material that showed Ruby was part of a conspiracy. Shaw figured out that Ruby’s lawyer, famed San Francisco attorney Melvin Belli, was doing the mob a favor by having Ruby plead insanity, so that the investigation would stop right there. Who’s going to believe a crazy man, right? Belli was “on call” for the mob after the assassination, Shaw writes. While having lunch at Scoma’s on Fisherman’s Wharf, Belli heard that Oswald had been killed. He remarked to a witness Shaw interviewed, “Well, since Oswald’s dead, I’ll have to defend Ruby.”

At trial, Ruby wanted to take the stand, but Belli wouldn’t let him. Ruby did give a couple of interviews to Kilgallen, who was a nationally known columnist for the Hearst Newspaper Syndicate. Apparently a great deal of what Kilgallen learned from Ruby didn't make it into her column, but she planned to use it in a book that, because of her death, would never be published.

Kilgallen targeted

"Denial of Justice" makes it clear that in the minds of those behind the assassination, Kilgallen had to be killed. She told people just before her death that she had evidence that would blow the JFK case wide open. Her fellow panelist on "What's My Line?" Random House publisher Bennett Cerf, had given her an advance on a book she was going to write about the assassination. Cerf read the book's preface the evening of her final "What's My Line?" episode before her death. He told people he was impressed by it.

She was murdered Nov. 8, 1965, a day before she was to travel to New Orleans, the home turf of crime boss Marcello, as she neared the end of her investigation.

A few hours after she died - but before police arrived - witnesses saw FBI men carrying files out of her Manhattan townhouse. Then again, the federal agents might actually have been members of the mob, Shaw allows. Either way, her notes and the file she was amassing on the JFK case were gone.

Another conspiracy theory? I know what some of you might be saying at this point - good grief, another JFK conspiracy theory? In the late 60's and most of the 70's, every crackpot was offering a theory about the assassination. The country went into conspiracy theory fatigue. Most people sensed that Oswald didn't act alone, but exactly who masterminded the assassination was anybody's guess - the Russians, Cubans, the mob, Lyndon Johnson were all suspects in the public mind. Shaw, a former attorney and author of 25 nonfiction books, backs up his claims in "Denial of Justice" with recorded interviews and primary source documents, like the transcript of the Ruby trial. He created a website, www.thedorothykilgallenstory.org, to host the recordings and documents he cited.

Palo Alto incident- While the JFK assassination is a morose topic, the book offers a bit of levity concerning a Palo Alto incident Shaw mentioned as part of the criminal history of the man he believes killed Kilgallen, Ohio newspaperman Ron Pataky. In 1954, Pataky - then a Stanford freshman - got drunk one night with a couple of friends who ended up at the Palo Alto bus station. They demanded that the bus driver let them on the bus, but he refused. Then a wine bottle was thrown at the front window of the bus, and the driver went to a phone booth to call police, but the phone had been ripped out by one of the drunken students. But police caught up to the three and arrested them. Shaw's first source about the incident was a clipping from the Stanford Daily archives. To flesh it out, he found one of Pataky's cohorts, none other than famed Bay Area criminal defense attorney Tony Serra. Serra, now 83, told Shaw that he met Pataky while the two played on the freshman Stanford football team.

Serra confirmed to Shaw that the three of them were arrested. "When the police did arrive, I hid between two buses and Pataky hid under a bus, but they found us," Serra told Shaw.

Pataky, who was involved in other incidents over the years, was never charged in Kilgallen's murder, though he's made a number of incriminating statements indicating that he knew her drink had been poisoned. - https://padailypost.com/2018/12/03/local-author-says-columnist-cracked-the-jfk-case-in-1965-just-before-she-was-murdered/

Ed's Inquiry: What is "Defensive Policing"? Can it be theorized as corrupt police procedures used to neutralize dissidents who are exposing government corruption, similar to how U.S. Presidents receive "Defensive Briefings" about circulating detrimental information?

Theoretical Definition

> Defensive Policing is the strategic use of law enforcement to protect political elites from reputational harm or exposure. It involves suppressing dissent, intimidating whistleblowers, and neutralizing critics under the guise of maintaining public order.

Parallels to Defensive Briefings

- Defensive Briefings: Inform officials of reputational threats (true or false) to preempt fallout.
- Defensive Policing: Operationalizes this strategy by targeting the source of those threats-activists, journalists, or dissidents.

Mechanisms of Defensive Policing

Mechanism	Description
Strategic Response Units	Militarized police deployed to suppress protests and intimidate dissenters.
Anti-Protest Legislation	Use of vague laws to criminalize activism or label it as terrorism.
Surveillance & Profiling	Monitoring and targeting individuals who challenge institutional legitimacy.
Judicial Overreach	Inflated charges or prolonged detention to silence critics.
Media Framing	Portraying dissidents as threats to national security or public order.

Philosophical Implications

- Intent vs. Unrepentance: Officials act with purpose and remain morally unyielding despite harm caused.
- Legitimacy vs. Legality: Defensive Policing often operates in legal gray zones, raising questions about institutional ethics.

Case Examples

- “Cop City” (Atlanta): Protesters faced terrorism charges for opposing militarized police expansion.
- University Encampments (2024): Over 2,500 students arrested for protesting U.S. foreign policy.
- Post-9/11 Legislation: Domestic activists targeted under expanded terrorism definitions.
